

Pamphlet Subsidy for the insurance contributions of health and long-term care insurance (§ 26 SGB II)

Who gets the subsidy?

If you receive citizen's allowance for employable beneficiaries and you were last privately insured,

You are assigned to private health insurance while you are receiving benefits. This also applies to other members Your community of needs if they meet the requirement. The Jobcenter then pays an allowance upon application. contribution to private health and long-term care insurance.

If you were last voluntarily legally entitled to benefits before receiving citizen's allowance for employable beneficiaries health insurance, your protection in statutory health and long-term care insurance is due to the receipt of benefits Ensure.

If you receive citizen's allowance for non-employable beneficiaries or do you receive citizen's allowance for eligible benefits only on a loan, the Jobcenter pays a subsidy if you are private, are legally or voluntarily covered by statutory health and long-term care insurance. If, on the other hand, you have a family insurance

If you are legally insured with a relative, no subsidy is granted.

How much is the subsidy?

1. Subsidy for private health and long-term care insurance

The subsidy for private health and long-term care insurance is limited to the amount of your contribution halved in the Base rate. In 2024, the maximum subsidy for private health insurance will therefore be 421.77 euros per month. ish.

They can remain insured in their previous insurance rate while receiving benefits or in the Basistarif, which must be offered by every private health insurance company. The contribution in this basic rate is halved for the duration of the receipt of citizen's allowance and up to this amount as a subsidy inherited. The benefits in the basic rate are comparable to those of statutory health insurance.

If you wish to remain insured in your previous insurance tariff, your individual contribution will be used as a immediately used. The lower amount - the halved contribution of the basic rate applicable to you or your individual - can be paid as a subsidy.

Please note:

If you remain in your previous tariff and your contribution is higher than half the contribution in the basic tariff, you must bear the excess portion of the contribution himself. Please indicate the amount of the contributions to be paid by you with according to your current contribution notice. The amount of your contribution to the basic rate can be determined by your healthcare provider.

insurance companies.

Important note if you would like to switch to the basic rate for the period of need:

In order to find out in detail about the effects of a change in tariffs - for example with regard to the benefit in the basic rate, as well as on the amount of contributions and the possibilities of switching even after the end of the benefit period.

dung.

Please note:

If you are after the 15. March 2020 due to existing need for assistance according to the Second Book of the Social Code

(SGB II) have changed (or change) to the basic rate and your need for assistance ends within two years, taking into account your previously acquired rights and without a new health examination, you have a return right to return to your last tariff before the change. To do so, you must of the need for assistance submit an application to your private insurance company. If your need for help not only temporary and last longer than two years is usually a return from the basic rate in your previous service tariff to a new health examination and thus often leads to partial significantly higher contributions or benefit exclusions. If you remain in the basic rate, you will have to pay the following after the end of the service the full contribution in the basic rate up to the maximum contribution of currently EUR 843.54 of the statutory health insurance

To be paid. Please seek advice from your private health insurance company.

The contributions for private long-term care insurance can also be taken into account. The grant is limited to:

half of the maximum contribution to social long-term care insurance. For those insured in the basic rate, this maximum contribution for the duration of the benefit. The subsidy is the lower amount - the halved maximum contribution to social long-term care insurance or your individual contribution . In 2024, the maximal subsidy 87.98 euros per month. You must prove the amount of your contribution.

Important note if you are insured in a tariff with a deductible :

The deductible is the share that you have to bear yourself for any medical costs incurred. Herethrough you usually pay a cheaper premium. For example, do you have a deductible of 600 euros per year, the health insurance company will only reimburse costs above this amount.

The costs of medical treatment that you have to pay as part of the deductible cannot be covered by the Jobcenter can be taken over, as these are not contributions.

Please note: This may result in financial burdens in the event of illness.

You have the option of switching to the basic rate without a deductible. However, please note the possible consequences of such a change, as described above.

2. Voluntary or statutory health and long-term care insurance

If you are voluntarily or legally insured while receiving benefits, you will receive the subsidy from Contribution payable to you. You must prove the amount of your contribution.

How do I apply for the subsidy and how is it paid?

In order to be able to grant you a subsidy for your health and long-term care insurance contributions, fill out in addition to the application for citizen's allowance, please also submit Annex SV "Social Insurance of Recipients".

Bestätigung über den Erhalt des Merkblatts "Zuschuss zu den Versicherungsbeiträgen der Kranken- und Pflegeversicherung (§ 26 SGB II)"

Ich habe das Merkblatt "Zuschuss zu den Versicherungsbeiträgen der Kranken- und Pflegeversicherung (§ 26 SGB II)" erhalten und kenne dessen Inhalt.

Ich bin über mein Wechselrecht in den Basistarif und die in dem Merkblatt dargestellten Folgen eines Wechsels informiert. Ich bin darüber informiert, dass ich als privat kranken- und pflegeversicherte Person den Beitragsanteil, der über dem halbierten Beitrag im Basistarif liegt, selbst tragen muss.

Ich habe zur Kenntnis genommen, dass ich, wenn ich in einem Kranken- und Pflegeversicherungstarif mit Selbstbehalt versichert bin und in diesem verbleibe, Selbstbehalte selbst tragen muss und mir hierdurch finanzielle Belastungen entstehen können.
